At the weekend we held our inaugural Charity Dinner at the Waterfront Function Centre with almost 80 people in attendance where raised funds are to go to RAW Tas. The food was of high quality and very satisfying, and the Super Trouper—Abba Tribute Band for the entertainment was excellent—the dance floor was busy all night, and the Cocktail lotto and Auction topped off a great night out. The feedback has all been very positive and encouraging, with appreciation going to all committee members for organising an excellent function. Many people are already expressing keen interest in attending another similar event next year. Good food and good entertainment— left many people wanting to add this fundraising dinner to their annual calendar of events. Well Done !!

Last week several Rotarians were busy running a BBQ to raise awareness in the community about Polio and how close Rotary International are with the “End Polio Now” project.
